

HUMAN TRAFFICKING HAPPENS HERE TOO.

A Resource Guide of Supportive Services for Victims of Human Trafficking

Including:

Cuyahoga, Ashtabula, Geauga, Lake, Lorain, and Summit Counties

February 2020

The Collaborative to End Human Trafficking is leading area law enforcement, government, health care, social service agencies, and businesses to identify the needs of trafficked persons and to develop a comprehensive and coordinated response to human trafficking in northern Ohio.

Working together, this collaborative network created this Resource Guide.

It is intended as an aid in addressing human trafficking.

Special thanks to Cleveland Rape Crisis Center's Project STAR and Bellefaire JCB for their significant assistance in updating this Resource Guide.

This Resource Guide is maintained and made available for the purpose of enhancing access to information about supportive services for victims of human trafficking. The inclusion of any organization, agency or service in this Resource Guide does not imply or constitute an endorsement or recommendation, nor does exclusion imply disapproval. Every attempt has been made to provide accurate information.
