"The Collaborative to End Human Trafficking profoundly transformed my life, fostering understanding, empowerment, and resilience. Through new connections and shared experiences, it has forged alliances, friendships, and collaborations, providing access to previously unavailable support and resources. My time on the survivor advisory board has strengthened my resolve to advocate for myself and others impacted by human and labor trafficking, reshaping our narrative from victimhood to resilient survival."

Andrea Mittman Thomas, Survivor Advisory Council

Deeper Impact Through Awareness and Education

Educational Impact

- Knowledge and Preparedness: Nearly all respondents indicated their knowledge of human trafficking increased after attending the presentation (98%). The majority of respondents indicated they felt more prepared to identify human trafficking compared to before the presentation.

Tailored Training & Technical Assistance

"I'm a strong believer in the work that you and your organization do. With the education and support that I received from the collaborative over the years, we have been able to put away traffickers, but also provide wrap-around services for victims. Thanks for everything you do."

First Responder – Det. Freddy Cuevas, Jr. #51, Greater Cleveland RTA Police

Thriving Youth Summit

The Thriving Youth Summit brought together more than 100 individuals from 65 organizations to recommend system changes in Cuyahoga County to support trafficked youth, and to identify youth before they are trafficked.

Key strategies developed:

- Information Sharing
- Policy Change/Advocacy
- Safe Housing
- Safe Neighbors – Holistic Approach
- Trauma informed/ Survivor Centered Spaces
- Trauma Informed Training & Education
- Wrap-Around Care

The Collaborative to End Human Trafficking is the backbone organization of Greater Cleveland Coordinated Response to Human Trafficking, Cuyahoga County's Anti-Human Trafficking Coalition. We support the collective efforts through Technical Assistance & Training, Facilitation, Coordination, Data Collection and Distribution, Communication and Advocacy.

Purpose Statement

Greater Cleveland's Coordinated Response to Human Trafficking works together with its partners to build a community free of human trafficking and its root causes through:

- Education
- Awareness
- Policies
- Comprehensive, trauma-informed, and individual-centered services

"Junior Achievement is proud to be part of Greater Cleveland's Coordinated Response to Human Trafficking. Our organization's vision is to provide young people with the skillset and mindset to build thriving communities. JA helps the GCCRHT spread its mission in our partner schools to help students, teachers, and administrators collectively know more about the problem, ways they can help prevent it from happening, and resources for those who directly or indirectly experience human trafficking."
